Smart Cycling 2009

June 18-20, 2009 • San Jose, Calif.

The bi-annual League Education conference is ramping up, and it is destined to be a great one. The League's education program is in the middle of a complete overhaul. Since 2008, we've launched Traffic Skills 101, Traffic Skills 201, Group Riding, and completely revised our Commuter Student curriculum. What's left? Everything! Our kids manuals need to be redone, and our entire League Cycling Instructor Curriculum has to be overhauled. And we need your help!

Come to San Jose this summer to talk about the best way to teach cyclists; to help the League continue to improve our curricula; and to hear news and updates from the foremost cycling educators in the world.

We've lowered our fees by more than 30 percent:

This year, LCIs pay $200, League members pay $275, and non-members pay $325.
All fees increase by $100 after the earlybird deadline of May 1.
